Dear Lowell,

As a mortgage broker, we handle huge amounts of personal information about our clients. We are personally responsible for the recording of, storage of and finally the disposing of this information. With identity fraud on the rise, we take this responsibility very seriously.

In the past we would have to either shred the paperwork ourselves which is very time consuming, or deliver it to a secure sight to have them dispose of the paperwork. I was never really comfortable with such important documents lying around their facility.

We are very pleased that you have come to us with your i-Secure service. Your delivery of and the taking away of the bin has been very non intrusive to our business and the disposal method of the i-Secure truck is second to none. I especially like the peace of mind that I get knowing that you are shredding those documents right there in my parking lot.

We whole heartedly recommend this service to any of your new and potential customers.
